

Future of Iran's Wind Industry in New International Era

After the last year successful experience, the Fifth Iran Wind Energy Conference was held on 10 & 11 October, 2017 by the Wind Energy Association of Iran. The Fifth Conference, with a different approach, surveyed the future of the wind energy industry of Iran in light of the new international atmosphere.

In addition, the said Conference tried to by considering the development of aligned countries to Iran in the wind energy field which have achieved significant success, in presence of their representative, find new solutions for expedient development of the Iran wind energy industry. Moreover, the challenges in this industry was subject of discussion by experts. The Ministry of Energy, Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Organization, Organization for investment Economic and Technical Assistance, Tuv Nord Company, Mapna Group Company were among the supporters of the Conference.

Mr. Mohammad Rahmani, Managing Director of the Bayan Emrooz Law Firm, on behalf of the firm participated in the conference.

